“The UC Washington Center offers a great environment for you to live and learn. From our fitness facility to our lovely terrace, I am certain you will enjoy educating yourself and living at the Washington Center.

I encourage you to explore and enjoy the city. You will learn a lot about the government and non-profit worlds from your experience, and the city also has many one of a kind museums and cultural experiences! Get out there and enjoy them!”

-Josh Brimmeier, Residential Life Director
